LTA Privacy Policy

The Langley Teachers' Association (LTA) is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of our members' personal information.

The LTA is committed to complying with the British Columbia Personal Information Protection Act, S.B.C. 2003, C. 63 (PIPA). This includes managing the collection, use, disclosure, storage, and ultimate disposition of our members' personal information in ways that safeguard the privacy of our members.

Definitions

Personal Information - for the purposes of this policy means information about an individual. It does not include aggregate information which cannot be associated with a specific individual, and it does not include the name, title, business address, business e-mail address, or business telephone number of an individual. Examples of personal information include home address and phone number, social insurance number, and medical information of an individual.

Privacy Officer - means the individual(s) designated responsible for ensuring that the LTA complies with this policy and PIPA. Unless otherwise appointed, the privacy officers will be the full time table officers.

Personal Information Collected

The LTA collects personal information to fulfill its obligations to members and in the course of providing a variety of services. The types of information collected include:

- your name
- home address and telephone number
- social insurance number
- birth date
- gender
- home email address

Additional information may be collected to fulfill our obligations to you or to provide specific services.

Purposes for collection, use and disclosure

We collect and use personal information for the purposes of fulfilling our obligations to you as a member, including the constitution and by-laws, to provide specific services as required, and to fulfill our role as the bargaining agent representing members. The purposes for which LTA collects and uses personal information include:

- to identify you
- to communicate with you
- to confirm your eligibility for services
- to comply with various professional legal and regulatory requirements

- to provide services related to the Salary Indemnity Plan, legal services, grievances, Workers' Compensation Board (WorkSafeBC) advocacy, and pension plan advocacy and assistance
- to conduct research

Protection of personal information

The LTA is committed to protecting your personal information from unauthorized use or disclosure. Our commitment means that:

- We will use your personal information only for the purposes we have identified.
- We will not disclose your personal information without your permission unless we are required or authorized by law to do so.
- We will employ appropriate security measures to ensure only authorized individuals have access to your personal information.
- We will keep your personal information only as long as required.
- When your personal information is no longer required we will destroy it in a confidential, secure method.

Individual access

Individuals have the right to request access to their personal information under the control of the LTA. The Privacy Officers will assist them with their access requests.

Access requests must be submitted by completing the LTA Access Request Form. You may request a form by sending an e-mail to the LTA Privacy Officer at mail@langleyteachers.com and returning the form by mail to LTA, #100, 5786 Glover Road, Langley BC V3A 4H9, Attention Privacy Officer. In certain situations, further to privacy legislation, we may not be able to provide access to certain personal information that we hold about an individual. Examples of where we may not provide access include, but are not limited to, the following:

- where provision may reveal personal information about another individual;
- where the information is subject to solicitor-client privilege;
- where the information was collected in relation to an investigation or a contravention of a federal or provincial law; or
- where provision could reasonably be expected to threaten the health or safety of an individual.

If access cannot be provided, the LTA will notify the individual making the request, in writing, of the reasons for the refusal. Where access has been provided and where the information is demonstrated to be inaccurate or incomplete, the LTA will amend the information as required.

Questions or concerns regarding LTA's privacy procedures

An individual may direct their general questions regarding privacy at LTA, as well as any questions or concerns regarding LTA's compliance with this policy, by mail to the LTA at #100, 5786 Glover Road, Langley, BC V3A 4H9, Attention Privacy Officer.

The LTA will investigate any complaints received in writing. If a complaint is found to be justified, the LTA will take appropriate measures to resolve the complaint including, if necessary, amending its policies and procedures. An individual will be informed in writing of the outcome of the investigation regarding his or her complaint.

Criteria:

- Registered as a student (full time or part time) in a BC public school
- Accepted to attend an accredited Ministry approved post secondary institution; to be verified by letter from the institution.
- Demonstrated involvement in Social Justice work
- Social justice work involves more than just course work, charity or short-term projects that provide "band aid" solutions. Social justice theory focuses on equity for all and its goal is to encourage systemic change. Applicants will have a demonstrated history of sustained involvement within the school and/or community in the areas of social justice, equity, leadership and/or social inclusion.

Application Process:

Information packages will be distributed to secondary School Counsellors in early March. The application package will consist of:

- a one-page letter of introduction to the LTA Scholarship Committee telling us who you are, what has inspired your career path and what you have been doing in pursuit of your goals
- a completed application form
- two letters of reference from Teachers (one at the applicant's current school)
- a letter of acceptance from a post-secondary institution
- Application and letters of reference to be received at the LTA no later than April _____ at 4:00pm.

Logistics:

- Criteria will be distributed to all secondary School Counselors once approved by the LTA Executive Committee.
- The LTA scholarship fund will be divided equally between each of the eleven Langley secondary schools, should all schools submit applications.
- LTA Scholarship fund for _____ will be set at $12,000.00 to permit twelve (12) scholarships of $1000.00 each to be presented to a student at each secondary school that submits applications.
- Ten scholarships will be available for students in Langley schools and up to two scholarships will be available for students in other districts with a parent who is an active LTA member.
- If a limited number of secondary schools submit applications, the remaining funds will be allocated at the rate of $1000.00 per student. The remaining applications will be reviewed on a 'merit' based system.

- Scholarships awarded previously in memory of Langley Teachers will continue to be presented in their name.
- Scholarships are available for students for up to two years if the student chooses to take a gap year after high school. Students must provide proof of registration in a post secondary program in September _____ or _____ or January _____ or _____ in the years following their scholarship award, and then a cheque will be provided to each scholarship winner.
- Either a member of the LTA Executive, an LTA school based staff rep or a Teacher of the student's choice at each secondary school will present the award at their graduation ceremony.
